Coleman's Victory Loan Quota Set At $75,000 Collections up to Wednesday Eve. Totalled $18,400

Large Crowd Gathered At Bellevue Arena To Witness Victory Loan Show On Sunday

H. C. McBurney and Wm. Kerr Presented With Commando Daggers—Air Force Band Led Local Parade of Air Cadets and Miss Canadas

The Crow's Nest Pass Third Victory Loan campaign got away to a flying start on Sunday when local parades, coupled with a large parade and concert at Bellevue, brought out the citizens several thousand strong to hear messages and appeals for the loan, as well as to enjoy two and a half hours excellent entertainment.

The local parade started at approximately 12:30 p.m. when the R.C.A.F. band from No. 7 Flying School, Macleod, led the air cadets and Miss Canadas along Main Street and back. At 1 p.m. they embarked for Blairmore, where a similar program had been arranged. Here Mayor Enoch Williams was presented with the Commando dagger on behalf of the Blairmore-Frank unit. At Bellevue members of the Coleman and Blairmore parades combined with the Bellevue-Hillcrest cadet, and Miss Canadas and led by the air force band marched through Bellevue's main streets to the arena.

At the start of the show unit organizers H. C. McBurney, of Coleman, and Wm. Kerr, of Bellevue-Hillcrest, were presented with their Commando daggers.

The show was opened by two sailors from the senior service, O.S. Sutherland and O.S. Nicolas, who presented a tableau against the white flagged background, unfurling the White Ensign and presenting arms while the air force band played "Rule Britannia."

Vocal soloists were outstanding, applause greeting Pte. Joyce Boveridge, C.W.A.C., who sang two appealing selections, and A.W. Olive Cooper, R.C.A.F. (W.D.), blues singer. Sgt. Ross Seath, R.A.F., baritone, and Sgt. Coates, gold medalist tenor, were received with great appreciation.

A clever magician, Sgt. Tom Rigby, held the interest of crowds with his deft performances and professional patter, thrilling small boys in the audience by asking their assistance. A.W. Peggy Robertson from No. 7 S.F.T.S. did imitations of Grace Fields; Pte. Ralph Foster, the yodelling soldier with his guitar, was a popular performer, and the saxophone solos of LAC. Ken Verral were greatly enjoyed. The finished technique and rhythmic lik of LAC Lloyd Cooper, R.A.F., on the piano with his own arrangements and transcriptions of popular and classic numbers was a great joy to musical people in his audience.

Sgt. Ross Seath and LAC. Lloyd Cooper were piano accompanists to the vocalists. Cpl. Ted Forsy acted as master of ceremonies.

proaching and crash into Julia and hit the fence, which guarded the sidewalk.

The evidence by the Crown had shown there was imprudent, reckless and negligent driving. The inference gained from the evidence was that accused was the driver of the truck, that he was driving with complete disregard for the safety of others, and of such character as to be an offence against the State. He stated that Constable R. Stewart, R.C.M.P., had performed a valuable piece of work in piecing together the pieces of broken lens glass found at the scene of the accident, and the pieces found in the broken headlight when he searched Venier's truck at Bellevue, which left no doubt of Venier's truck having been involved.

He therefore sentenced accused as above stated, and on request of defence counsel, allowed Venier one week to settle up his business affairs before commencing his sentence.

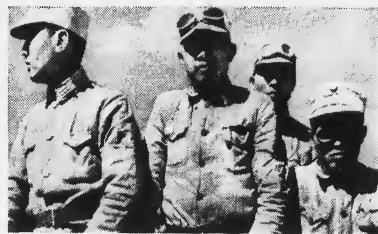

Medical evidence was submitted by Dr. Lesk of Bellevue who performed the autopsy on Julia Mayerchak, of Coleman, who died on March 5, 1942, within a few hours after being struck by a truck driven by Venier, on the highway between Coleman and West Coleman, on March 4, about 8 p.m., was sentenced to one year at hard labor in Lethbridge goal, despite the defence of his counsel, M. E. Moscovich, of Lethbridge, and a plea for leniency.

The evidence submitted by the prosecution conducted by John L. Fawcett, K. C., Macleod, was to the effect that on the night of March 4, Venier was driving his truck from Crow's Nest eastward, when he ran into a group of eight girls ranging from eight to 15 years of age who were returning to their homes in West Coleman, and who were crossing the highway to get to the sidewalk on the opposite side. Julia Mayerchak was struck down, and another girl named Bubniak was also injured.

Without stopping to ascertain what had happened, Venier continued driving to Bellevue, his home town, several miles further.

In summing up the chief justice stated that there was no room for reasonable doubt that Venier had struck the girl. The evidence of Gordon Ross, bartender at Crow's Nest Inn, showed that Venier had from twelve to fourteen glasses of beer between 3:30 p.m. and 7 p.m., when he left for the east. The evidence of two child witnesses, Helen Siska and Pauline Korschuska, who were in the group, showed that as they crossed the road they saw the truck approaching and it was swerving from side to side. The evidence of Pauline, who was an intelligent witness, indicated that she was in a better position to give details of the accident than if she had been at the exact spot where Julia was struck down, as she was a short distance and saw the truck ap-

Cigarette Fund Notes

Hello Legion: Received my lot of cigarettes two days ago, and I thank you for sending them to me. I met Danny Foster and Bob Davidson, Danny being 5-nt back to this camp for a rest. Bob is stationed not far from Gillies and I. Both are looking good. Well, that's all for now, thanking you again for the cigs.—Pte. D. Nevay.

Dear Sirs: We received some Canadian mail yesterday and I was more than pleased to see a parcel of cigs for me. I want to thank all the members of the Legion, Ladies' Auxiliary, B.E. S.L. and the citizens of Coleman who make it possible for us to receive a regular supply of cigs over here. If you could see the expression on the boys' faces when Coleman cigarettes arrive, I think you'd know what I mean.—Oscar Hirsch.

Dear Sirs: All my thanks for carton of cigarettes. They are really appreciated. Hope everyone of my old friends in Coleman are O.K. I am fine at present. We are quite busy at my type of work now. I haven't run into any of the Coleman boys as yet over here, but I guess I will sooner or later. It sure gets dark early here now and the blackouts are very hard to get along in. Thanks again a million to members of the Coleman Legion and the citizens of Coleman who make it possible for us over here to enjoy smokes from home.—Archie Wragge.

Others sending acknowledgement cards were George Burchell and Oscar Hirsch, who had received a second lot of cigarettes.

Take time to be friendly. It is the road to happiness.

Soldiers' Letters

The Journal Staff: Just another short line to let you know we're still alive and waiting to get into the battle. I was in Epson the other day and just went to walk into the "pictures" when we do meet but Oscar Hirsch. We've been stationed about four miles apart from each other now for the past four months and we've just met. It seemed so funny. We were the two happiest men in town and talked over old times and we sure intend to keep together as often as we can.

My mail has been coming in well and I had just received a letter from Tony Ledieu from the west coast, and he sent me Oscar's address and we were to look each other up. It seemed such a coincidence. Oscar is really looking well and said he had met Leonard Hoyle in London when he was on leave. I sure wish I could meet a few of my old friends.

Things are very quiet here and sometimes I think I'm in Canada except for sirens, etc. I expect to go up to Glasgow on my next leave about Oct. 5—hope I meet up with some more I know, then we'll paint town red. Well, cheerio for now, and hello to all the folks.—L. A. Caroe.

Making Another Production Mark

LONDON (CP)—Evelyn Duncan, 22-year-old war work girl who set every body in Britain talking a year ago by creating a world production record, has done it again. On Sept. 20, 1941, she finished a week in which she made 6,150 anti-aircraft shell components. A year later she broke a record for any one night shift by making 1,700 shell components.

Canvassers Swing Into Action; All Homes Will be Canvassed Within Next Three Weeks

Subscriptions Monday and Tuesday Amounted to $11,800; Fully Expect to Reach Quota.

With kits under their arms, Coleman's Third Victory Loan salesmen swung into action on Monday evening and will continue with unabated energy to solicit every wage earner in the town and district to buy Victory Bonds.

Coleman's quota has been set at $75,000. This is $7,000 more than the February loan and $22,000 greater than the First Victory Loan. At the end of Tuesday's canvass, $11,800 had been subscribed.

The bulk of the subscriptions, as was expected, are in the $50 and $100 class. Naturally there have been a number of refusals, but on the whole, the sale of bonds is most gratifying, and canvassers are quite confident that they will reach the $75,000 quota and even surpass it before the loan closes on or about Nov. 7.

Citizens as a whole are well aware for the need of this huge amount of money, $750,000,000, to help carry on Canada's war program; they know that their money is perfectly safe in bonds and are doing their utmost to buy at least one bond, regardless of whatever it is $50 or $1,000.

RED CROSS DANCES STARTED LAST SATURDAY

On Saturday last the Coleman branch of the Canadian Red Cross commenced their Fall and winter dances in the Italian hall. Due to lack of publicity there was only a small crowd at the dance. Edle's orchestra has been engaged.

There will be no Red Cross dance this coming Saturday as the Polish Society have engaged the orchestra to play at their dance which follows the Polish sale of work and home cooking being held in the Polish hall from 2 to 7 p.m. The dance starts at 9 p.m.

Murphy Speaks in Favor of Loan And Total War

Urges Pressure on Government for Second Front; Good Crowd in Attendance.

"We must get in this war with both feet, both arms and every ounce of energy we possess," stated Harvey Murphy when he addressed an audience in the community hall on Sunday evening on the subject "Total War." The meeting was sponsored by the Sub District of the U.M.W.A., Wm. White, president of the Coleman branch, acting as chairman.

The speaker dealt in detail from the time Hitler was handed the reigns of power in Germany by Hindenburg to the present day. He told of how Hitler, with his Gestapo, fifth columnists, quillings, and his skill at playing one faction against another had won for him victory after victory with a minimum of effort and bloodshed.

It was only when he had overrun Europe and came up against United peoples such as Great Britain and Russia that his war machine was checked.

He outlined the war preparations of the Axis powers when Germany first went into the Rhineland, Italy invaded Ethiopia, and Japan marched into Manchukuo, Spain, he asserted, was only a testing ground for Axis armaments.

Coming back to the home front, he mildly chided those miners whom he had heard making indignant remarks about the deductions on their pay statement. These men, he stated, who had sons in the army should be only too pleased to help their sons get the munitions of war to crush the enemy. The Third Victory Loan was being launched the following day, and he urged his listeners to support it to the best of their financial ability. But, he asserted, the loan is not enough. Canadians would have to get into this war with both feet, both arms and every ounce of energy if the war was to be brought to a short and victorious conclusion.

Chairman White, speaking as chairman of the Coleman's National War Finance Committee, asked his audience to support the loan to the best of their ability.

Mayor Antrobus Appeals For Support to Loan

Addressed Theatre Audience on Saturday Evening; Theatre Patrons Expend Two Minutes Black-Out.

On Saturday evening at the Palace theatre, patrons experienced a two minutes black-out as part of the local publicity in the Third Victory Loan, which opened on Monday morning.

Following the black-out, Mayor Antrobus addressed the audience on the necessity of supporting the Third Victory Loan to the best of their financial ability.

He stated "I'm living in the most critical period of the world's history, and I do not think we have begun to realize the tremendous task which lies ahead. The world is in an awful mess, and darker days are yet to come. The enemy is at our gate and how do we know that bombs will not be dropped in Alberta?" How do we know this Dominion will not be invaded? Are we ready for an invasion? The necessity of every able-bodied man trained in the use of arms is quite plain. If ever there was a time in the history of the world when free people should unite, it is right now! In support for support to the loan, he invited the Coleman citizens to attend the big show which was scheduled for the Bellevue arena the following day.

MASONS HOLD SOCIAL EVENING FOR BILL STEVENSON

Following the regular meeting of Summit Lodge, A. F. & A. M., on Thursday last the members sat down to enjoy a social evening with "Bill" Stevenson, who has since left for Vancouver, where he will reside in the future. Bill was the recipient of many good wishes from his friends.

Held Over Till Next Week

Due to a last minute rush this morning some copy has unfortunately had to be held over. Items appearing next week will include a resolution passed at a public meeting on Sunday, copy of which was received this morning, a report on this week's salvage collections, and also a report on overseas soldiers' parcels prepared by the Soldiers' Comfort Fund committee on Wednesday afternoon.

There is only one way to be happy and that is to make somebody else so.

Heroes Of Dieppe

WITH DEEP FEELINGS of pride and satisfaction the people of Canada recently received word of the hundred and seventy-eight awards bestowed by His Majesty King George VI. on officers and men of the Canadian army who took part in the raid on Dieppe. Before the raid had been over for many hours, stories of great gallantry and courage were made known, and it is gratifying to the people of Canada that these deeds were recognized in the large number of honours, which were given out. Many officers and men of Western Canada regiments were decorated, and the Queen's Own Cameron of Winnipeg led in the list of honours. This was the only Manitoba regiment taking part in the battle.

Victoria Cross Is Awarded

To Lt.-Col. Charles Cecil Merritt, officer commanding the South Saskatchewan Regiment, went the only Victoria Cross to be awarded, and the first one to be presented to a Canadian in the present war. The story of Lt.-Col. Merritt's heroism at Dieppe is now familiar to most of us here, and it is one that will form a brilliant chapter in the story of Canada's part in this war. That Lt.-Col. Merritt is a prisoner of war and is believed to have been wounded is deeply regretted by the people of Canada. Members of the South Saskatchewan Regiment received twenty-one awards in all. Ten of the officers and men went medals, while eleven were mentioned in dispatches. Twenty-four awards were made to the Queen's Own Cameron of Winnipeg, while the Calgary Tanks, and the Calgary Highlanders each received two.

Men From Farms At War

In recent weeks farmers in Canada, and particularly in the Prairie Provinces, have experienced difficulty in securing help to harvest the bountiful crop which was produced this year. In many districts this labor shortage caused serious hardship and concern, and it is a problem which reached into almost every farming community in the land. For many, however, there must have been compensation in knowing that the young men who would normally be providing the labour for this harvest are fighting in the skies and on the seas to keep our country free, and that many of them, some wounded, some prisoners of war, and some killed in action, were among those heroes of Dieppe who were honored by the Empire in the awards bestowed upon them.

The Individual Citizen's Army

A Weekly Column About This And That In Our Canadian Army.
By Alan Maurice Irwin

Why do you read this column? Because you are interested in the Army. And the reason you are interested in the Army is because your son or your brother or your father or your sister or your mother is in the Army.

You can't find out enough to satisfy you. You want to know what he is doing, what his environment is, what his companions are like or to know whether she is amongst congenial people, what her job is or is likely to be.

In other words, and your particular contact with Army life may not realize it, you want to know every little thing that goes on. The sort of thing that is so close to the letter-writer that he or she does not think of it as being interesting. Right?

Since we understand each other on this point let's have a look at the other side.

What about the soldier—male or female—who awaits your letters from home?

What sort of letters do you write? Do you tell every little thing that goes on, do you realize that no soldier dier, man or woman, is so far from home that home isn't the most absorbing thing to read about when the Mail Corporal comes around with the letters? Or parcels?

Not long ago some of our statesmen made pleas for letters to soldiers that would buck up their morale. They wanted us to write brightly and cheerily so that the boys and girls would feel better about things.

Stuff, nonsense and poppycock! If our statesmen would think less about public morale—about which they apparently know nothing—and pay more attention to the homes in their own eyes we might get on with the war.

The troops don't need artificial cheerfulness—the kind of boys and girls in need of artificial cheer haven't yet volunteered for active service—what they want is news of their real life, the life they have put behind them until they finish the job of making a continuance of that life possible.

Tell them what's happening around the barn, down by the post office, who is "going with" who—or should it be whom?—how many kittens Tabby had last time, how Aunt Martha looked when she slipped on the cellar stairs and broke her ankle. Write a chapter about the new teacher who slapped the face of the fresh kid whose father is chairman of the school board.

In other words, keep them in the family circle.

And when you are doing that—and be sure to do it often, but not because you fear a loss of morale—give a thought to the Canadian Postal Corps. There is an unpublicized unit of specialists who get nothing but criticism from their fellow soldiers because mail is one of the things we take for granted when we get it—and curse the postman for when it is late!

It is a mammoth task, this handling of letters and parcels to hundreds of thousands of addressees who have literally "no known address". When you put your letter in the mail box its destination, unknown to you of course, may be the West Indies, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Egypt, Gibraltar, England, Scotland or Brockville. It may change from one of those destinations to another while the letter is en route.

But that letter is delivered, and in less time than the civilian post office which works very closely with the C.P.C. could handle an ordinary piece of mail.

As an example imagine you have decided to take a trip to Vancouver. Half way there you decided to run south and spend a couple of days in Chicago. Your appetite whetted by the Windy City, you change your mind again and head for Los Angeles—where you find your mail waiting for you!

Sounds like magic, doesn't it?

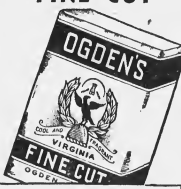

Well it would be magic if it could be done in civilian life, but in the Army it's different. There you have an organization that has to keep its component departments advised of everything that goes on so that supply and transport will be arranged.

Movements planned in advance, are known to all concerned and the "magic" becomes just good business practice that results in the delivery of a letter originally destined for Sergeant Brown in Scotland to Officer Cadet Brown in Brockville, Ontario, the minute he arrives there.

This is just one of the ways in which the Individual Citizens Army looks after the sons and daughters of that larger Individual Citizens Army that pays the bills.

Let us, then, instead of being just content to pay the bills, see to it that the public servants we hire to do the work of running our government leave no stone unturned to back up the armed forces.

We tell these hired men of ours to do an all-out job. We criticize them for not doing it to our satisfaction. We must do more than that—we must give them the leadership we hired them to give us.

So far we have been rationed in a few insignificant commodities—all of which we could do without. Most of my correspondents tell me they would welcome the rationing of many other commodities.

Don't tell me. Tell the man you hired last election!

Food In Britain

People Have Enough But Many Things Are Not Obtainable

E. M. H. Lloyd, economic advisor to the British Ministry of Food, told the American Hotel Association convention at Detroit that the biggest steak now served in British hotels is only the size of a dollar bill. He said there are no bananas, grapefruit or lemons, no fresh eggs or fresh milk, no white bread, sausages with only 30 per cent. meat, and little or no salad dressing, but added Britain's food situation "is better than anyone had reason to expect."

SUPPLIES GOING IN

One of the interesting speculations of the war is how Gen. Draja Mihailovich's forces in Yugoslavia are being supplied with arms and ammunition. A despatch to the New York Times from Ankara speaks of them being "recently reinforced by nearly a hundred tons of light arms and munitions—including automatic rifles, machine-guns and Tommy guns."

SPECIAL NAZI COURT

What has not unselfed love achieved for the race? All that ever was accomplished, and more than history has yet recorded.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Times of general calamity and confusion have ever been productive of the greatest minds. The purest ore is produced from the hottest furnace, and the brightest thunderbolt from the darkest storm.—Colton.

Blessings are upon the head of the just.—Proverbs 10:6.

CARE OF THE TEAKETTLE

Careful teakettle attention is sometimes lacking in the kitchen. For instance, water should never be allowed to stand in a teakettle when it is not in use. If water is left inside, lime deposits form and heating time is increased. Any lime deposit formed this way may be loosened by heating in a vinegar solution and removed by scrubbing with a fine scouring powder. From time to time the inside of the kettle should be given a good clean-up.

Think Themselves Lucky

North Carolina Paper Glad Canada Is Ally Of United States

The Charlotte, N.C., Observer says: Canadian soldiers had the biggest part in the super Commando raid on Dieppe, bearing the brunt of the fight. They are a vital people, direct actionists. They have not become bogged down in theory and discussions or too much organization with too little done. Their sparkplugs are still working.

It is lucky that we have Canada for an ally. Canadians stand on two good feet and fight with two good arms, feed themselves, arm themselves and generally play the part of men who expect to pay their own way as they go through life.

CHURCHILL GIVES WORD OF WARNING ABOUT THE DANGER OF ENEMY RAIDS ON BRITAIN

London.—Prime Minister Churchill warned Sunday that German air action against the British Isles this winter "may be heavy and menacing enough to call for everything that civil defence can produce to defeat it."

His statement was considerably less optimistic in tone than his observation in his address at Edinburgh, Oct. 10, that the Germans possibly would attempt "a very small return" in retaliation for the battering given the Reich by the R.A.F.

The prime minister's warning was read by the home secretary and minister of home security, Herbert Morrison, in the course of an address to 6,000 civil defence workers.

The word of caution came after receipt of reports from the continent which told of the regrouping of the German air force for the primary purpose of meeting bold daylight sallies by heavily-gunned British and American bombers.

But the possibility remained that such regrouping might also increase the effectiveness of the Nazi air force for bombing of Great Britain.

"Undoubtedly the Allies are overtaking the Germans in air power," the prime minister's statement said. "But none of us must rest upon his laurels or remain unthinkingly content with the methods of 1940-41."

"We cannot know with certainty the total weight of the attack which the Germans may be able or may decide to bring to bear upon any particular city."

"It may well be heavy and menacing enough to call for everything that civil defence can produce in order to defeat it. It is our duty to be prepared every day and at all points. This is an assumption which national interest demands we make."

Morrison gave emphasis to the prime minister's warning, and said that the R.A.F.'s successful tactics might lead to changes in the German method of attack.

"We may have to face fresh kinds of assault, bringing unfamiliar problems and calling for renewed displays of initiative and power to improvise," he said.

He added that Britons must avoid being "stampeded by any panicky theorizing into needless tactical gambles" because there is no assurance that Britain can count on the German attack following the 1940-41 pattern, or the form of the R.A.F. raids on the Ruhr and Rhineland.

Both Mr. Churchill and Morrison seemed to take cognizance of recent warnings of some air experts that the Germans might adopt the R.A.F.'s "saturation" tactics this winter.

Superiority Over Nazi Air Force Is Very Essential

Washington.—Capt. E. V. (Eddie) Rickenbacker brought back from an official survey trip to Britain the conclusion that a second land front in Europe must await decisive success for the British-American air offensive.

Already aerial superiority is "definitely on the Allies' side," and "the trend is entirely in our favor," the First Great War air ace reported to War Secretary Henry Stimson. But he added:

"The European theatre will remain an air theatre until we have secured superiority over the German air force and paralyze the production capacity of the German aircraft industry."

In general, Rickenbacker said that "the picture, from our standpoint, is as bright as the grim portrait of war can be," although he warned against complacency. American plans and tactics have proven sound and have won the approval of British authorities.

"We must keep our aircraft plants going at full capacity and send a steady stream of bombers, fighters, air crews and ground crews, and all that goes with it, flowing to England, so that in time there will be a constant cloud of Allied combat craft over the skies of Germany," Rickenbacker advised.

The total German air force, he said, "does not exceed 4,700 operational combat planes" of every type, a very small percentage of these being bombers.

"It would be a mistake, however, to draw the conclusion that German air power is on the decrease," he continued.

FLAX PRODUCTION

Board To Assist In Distribution Of Seed Of Rust Resistant Variety
Ottawa.—Agricultural supplies board announced that it will assist in distribution of Royal flax seed, a rust resistant variety.

The board statement said that it will purchase any surplus seed that cannot be distributed locally and will pay up to, but not exceeding, $2.75 a bushel, clean seed basis.

The statement said that agricultural departments of the Dominion and provincial governments urge that all Royal flax be kept out of commercial channels and sold as seed.

Greater production of flax is needed to meet the shortage of oil and the rust resistant flax seed is needed because of the prevalence of rust in producing areas of western Canada this year, it said.

The agricultural supplies board has appointed a committee through which growers may be able to obtain assistance in marketing the seed.

Farmers are urged to place orders with the Dominion plant products division of the Dominion department of agriculture at Winnipeg, Saskatoon or Calgary or the provincial departments of agriculture.

"Those having seed which they are unable to dispose of locally should advise any of the above offices," said the statement.

MISSIONARIES SLAIN

Two Priests And Two Sisters Killed By Japanese

London.—Four Marist missionaries, two priests and two sisters, were slain by Japanese soldiers on Guadalcanal island in the Solomons, the British colonial office said.

The announcement, which said all four were bayoneted in the throat, identified the victims as Father Arthur Duboulet, 34, of Boston, Mass.; Father Henry Engberink, 33, of Utrecht, Netherlands; and Sisters Sylvia and Odatya, believed to be from France. Another missionary, Sister Edmee, escaped.

MINING FOR TIN

Possibilities Of Yellowknife District Being Discussed

Edmonton.—The Journal in a newspaper story said that the "possibility of tin mining becoming prominent in the Yellowknife district—about 700 miles north of Edmonton—now is being discussed by mining authorities of the Dominion, it was learned in the city."

"Tin deposits, said to be substantial deposits, recently were found in the Yellowknife district and have been inspected by mining authorities. The deposits are said to be 'promising' considering other tin deposits found in the north. Tin deposits, said to be small deposits, already have been discovered at Outpost island and the shores of Great Slave lake. These findings have proven too small to mine."

"A small amount of tin is mined at Kimberley (B.C.). Approximately 80 per cent of the world's tin comes from Asia, mainly the Straits Settlements and Thailand. A large amount also comes from Bolivia."

DISORDERS OCCUR IN FRANCE AS NAZIS INCREASE PRESSURE TO GET MEN TO GO TO GERMANY

PLENTY OF NERVE

British Airmen Steal Nazi Bomber And Make Escape

Cairo.—Two British airmen, shot down in the Egyptian desert and faced with a long trek back to their own lines, solved the problem by stealing two enemy bombers from a German airfield and flying them back.

They had already set out from the wreck of their crashed plane and had walked 10 miles toward the east when they saw a German bomber coming down to land not far away.

Climbing to the top of a rocky hillock they saw the airfield. There were no buildings; only a few tents and lorries and these seemed poorly guarded. There were only a handful of men around.

They waited until nightfall when, they felt sure, their British flying kit wouldn't be recognized in the darkness. One of the airmen spoke German almost as fluently as English.

They stroled onto the flying field, but the bombers were surrounded by a swarm of ground crew and sentries.

It was too late to turn back. In his best Prussian air Britain blustered: "Why weren't these ready long ago?" This one should be ready by now."

He was hastily assured that the planes were ready. "Right, then, were off with them to base," the airman said. A show of hesitation was quelled with a flow of invective and threats. Engines were started up, wheel blocks removed and the two Britons were away.

AIR SCHOOL APPOINTMENT

Winnipeg.—W. J. Buchanan has been appointed assistant general manager of Winnipeg Air Observer School Limited, according to an announcement by C. R. Troup, general supervisor of schools, Canadian Pacific Air Lines, Limited. Mr. Buchanan's appointment to this British Commonwealth Air Training post became effective Oct. 1.

Berne, Switzerland.—Violent disorders have broken out in the unoccupied zone of France as the Nazis increased their pressure to get French workers to go to Germany, despatches to the Swiss press reported.

Lyons Chambery and Annecy were mentioned as trouble centres in a despatch to the Tribune de Lausanne, which said that, while details were lacking, it "is known that violent outbreaks occurred and that public forces (whether police, gendarmes or army units was not specified) had to intervene, and that blood flowed."

This despatch said there were unconfirmed reports "that bombs were thrown that the public forces had used weapons, chiefly hand grenades, that railway stations and other strategic points were occupied by troops."

Vichy sources, however, said officials of the Laval government were minimizing the extent of the disorders and insisting that it was not yet known that bloodshed had occurred.

The outbreaks were said to have started when the Nazis posted in factories lists of workers who were asked to go to Germany. It was said they were not actually requisitioned, as has been done in Germany, but were asked to "volunteer."

At Chambery, the reports said, the railway line was tied up as workers refused to move trains. Trouble was reported also in the Lyons railway yards while at Annecy women paraded with placards declaring "we will not let our husbands go to Germany."

(D.N.B. in a despatch dated Vichy, reported that the French ministerial council met under the presidency of Chief of State Petain. It may have dealt with the disorders.)

The Lyons area in recent weeks has become a centre of dissidence within the unoccupied zone of France. It is there that the long-time mayor and former president of the chamber of deputies, Edouard Herriot, has been placed under "home detention" as a result of his declarations against Vichy collaborationists.

Lyons is a railway and manufacturing city, specializing in fabrics, glassware and chemical products, and an inland shipping centre. The population in 1936 was 370,022, making Lyons the third largest city of France.

Chambery has a population of some 20,000. Annecy a population of 15,000.

Both Chambery and Annecy are on railways linking the main line through Lyons with Switzerland and Italy.

Coal Position In Britain Said To Be Critical

London.—British householders will be a little duller and draughtier this winter due to fuel economy, but nobody is likely to freeze in Britain's damp and chilly climate.

"Even if fuel is rationed or if fuel targets are observed, there will be only a 20-per cent. reduction in 'heat comfort' compared with pre-war days," said an official of the department of economic warfare.

"For the rest of Europe, however, the prospect is bleak. The best Germany can hope for will not be more than two-thirds peacetime comfort. In other continental countries the consumption of fuel permitted will be from half last year's consumption to none at all."

Although officials admit that Britain's coal position is critical, there's no immediate indication that a much-mooted rationing scheme, which Labor members of parliament consider necessary, will be introduced.

Just when people were thinking about switching on electric heaters and heaping coal on the living room fire the fuel ministry banned central heating in flats until November. Instead, they advised people to don woollies and heavier clothing earlier than usual.

This suggestion was directed especially to women—accustomed to going about in scanty underclothes and frilly dresses—by Sir Leonard Hill, eminent physiologist. His "prescription" for the save-fuel winter was, in a nutshell, "open your windows and wear more clothes."

Take Usual Military Training
Before Going Into Practice

LONDON, Oct. 7 (CP)—The R.A.F., alone among the fighting service now is commissioning women dentists. They take the same preliminary training course on joining and learn their marching, saluting and R.A.F. etiquette before settling down to chairs and drills and the thing of dentistry. Women accepted for this service get the "relative" rank of flying officer. This means they are addressed as "Miss" but for purposes of administration and discipline the rank defines their status.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Right of Free Speech Grossly Abused

Canada, following the example of Great Britain in not placing restrictions on what is termed free speech, whereby even the most severe critics of the government in wartime are permitted to air their views, must have got a jolt when Theodore Dreiser was invited by the Town Forum in Toronto to address a gathering, and was forbidden by the government to air his views. That there was good reason to ban him is evident in reading the comment of Hugh Clark, of Kincardine, Ont., who writes a column weekly for the High River Times, of which his brother, Charles Clark is the editor:

"There are too many organizations being formed just to sow mistrust among the United Nations and too many willing to lend themselves to that end. What is this Town Forum that brought Theodore Dreiser to Toronto of all places? He is of German descent and was an isolationist until Russia came on the scene. We knew him as an author and a ruffian and now we know him as a liar. Here is a sample of the stuff he got off in an interview before his public address was banned by the authorities: 'Churchill has no intention of opening a second front. He's afraid the Communists will rule the world. So he does nothing except send thousands of Canadians to be slaughtered at Dieppe. He didn't send any English. They stay at home and do nothing. Nothing.'"

Here's another sample of his talk. "Should Russia go down to defeat I hope the Germans invade England," he said. "I would rather see Germans in England than those damn, aristocratic, horse-trading snobs there now."

The man is not a friend of Russia any more than Britain, but is using Russia's plight to make Russian sympathizers enemies of Britain. He got out of Canada in good time, but what about that Forum that brought him here? The R.C.M.P. might investigate it to find if it is one of the many groups organized under unsuspicious names to hinder rather than help our war effort?"

Sensationalism in Magazine Articles

United States publications offer high prices for articles by men prominent in public life, tempting them to express their views on affairs of public interest. Even such prominent persons as Winston Churchill and Lloyd George have written articles for American publications, though not during the present war. The latest to create a furore in the British House of Commons was an article written by Lord Strabolgi, published in Collier's Magazine, entitled "What is wrong With the British Army?" Lord Strabolgi was a lieutenant-commander in the British Navy. Possibly his article may have had a good deal of truth, but it is very poor conduct to publish among our Allies material which not only is liable to sow seeds of discord but which tends to give comfort to the enemy. When brave men are fighting to preserve freedom, such articles as those of the Lord Strabolgi type are deserving of the opprobrium as expressed by Lord Lovat in the British House of Commons. The latter, a veteran Commando leader in the present war, stated: "The sentiment of this article is the sentiment of an irresponsible politician making cheap political capital out of men in the forces who are unable, except through an unworthy mouthpiece like myself to make a suitable reply."

Too Many "Pinks" for Prosecution of War

Dealing with ruthless foes, particularly the Japanese who from a Christian standpoint are regarded as heathens, who believe their Emperor is divine, and the Germans who look upon Hitler as a Superman, one would think that church organizations such as that which asks the government to lift the ban on certain internees would realize that this is not a time for maudlin sentiment. Men are appointed to conduct the war; judges are appointed to mete out justice; police are appointed to see that the laws of the country are obeyed and to protect us from those who would play traitor if they could get away with it. Instead of governments and military authorities being embarrassed with all sorts of requests and suggestions, it would be far better for everyone concerned if they followed the good old-fashioned advice of minding their own business, and leave important military planning to those who know far more about these matters than stay-at-home critics whose opinions are based not on practical knowledge but on their own fanciful theories and without regard to the results.

It took continued effort over a number of years to secure a market in Ontario for Alberta coal. Now the exigencies of war have stopped shipments to Ontario. One redeeming feature is that there is still plenty of demand for Alberta coal and even British Columbia will probably have to use some domestic coal from Alberta. It is to be hoped in the interests of Alberta's coal industry that after the war shipments from this province will be resumed.

Every Fit Boy of Minefields Knows Lawther

British Miners' Leader, Tough and Unflinching Has Proved Bulwark to War Effort as Well as Labor's Champion

By FOSTER BARCLAY

Canadian Press Staff Writer
LONDON, Oct. 1 (CP) Will Lawther, rotund and rubicund champion of miner's rights, ranks among Britain's roughest and grim-est fighters.

If there's a mining question to be settled or the government calls for more coal to stoke the factory furnaces this 53-year-old president of the powerful Mineworkers' Federation peels off his coat, rolls up his sleeves and pitches in.
He revels in hard work.

He's not a trade union leader who ascended by way of the soap-box, rest room or swivel chair.
Every pit boy and nigger from Durham to Wales knows this great massive-boned fellow with chest and shoulders of ox-like proportions.

And he's almost as tough and unflinching as an ox. When difficulties arose in the mine fields last spring and a crisis threatened at a time when the government was striving to bolster coal stocks, he stripped off his jacket and went to work. He got results.

Made Miners Happy

Lawther travelled from pit-head to pit-head addressing the miners and it was mostly his efforts around the conference table that got them a raise in pay, a minimum wage and better working conditions. The government and owners were satisfied. The miners have never been happier.

An enemy of Germany long before the war Lawther hopes soon for a second front because "it's better that we should die in the struggle than thrive and endure under Fascist monsters. 'He believes, too, that instead of eulogizing the Russians it would be better to give them support to show that Britain stands wholeheartedly behind them. So he's out to see that the miners provide the coal to make that possible.

Lawther, who has travelled in every European country and the United States, had a brush with Nazi ruthlessness a few months before war started. He has never forgotten how they went out of their way to humiliate him.

While returning from a miner's conference in Poland Nazi guards pulled him off a train at Aschen, led him to a room with covered windows and forced him to strip.
They investigated everything, even his rubber soles and the handle of his shaving brush.

The only reason Lawther could suggest for the action was a broadcast he had made to German miners over a secret and mobile radio station. The incident was brought in parliament and the foreign secretary was asked to protest to the German government.

Was M.P. and Jailed

During the National Strike in 1926 he served two months in jail. He's as proud of that record as the three years he sat in parliament as a socialist. When he was defeated in 1931 he didn't find himself out of a job for long. He pulled on overalls again and went back to the pit where he first started work at the age of 12, breadwinner for a family of 15.

His Durham brogue is thick, hard to understand. But when after reference to the war he brings down his big fist, blue from years at the coal-face, everybody what knows he thinks of Hitler.

New Invention Gives Long Gas Mileage

Keen interest has been created in the chain of a Castor man, Mike Sokolosky, that he has invented a carburetor that will give 125 miles per gallon of gasoline.

The inventor says the most saving is on cars that travel more than 40 miles per hour. (Federal War-time regulations bar car owners from exceeding 40 miles per hour.) Using his invention, the car engine will take less gasoline when operated between 40 and 70 miles per hour, says
Sokolosky.

The inventor says that simple mechanism, is used for his carburetor. No moulding or casting is necessary and it is a simple matter to start the motor. He says the invention gives the engine a better performance and more 'pep'.

ready again, to strike and strike hard, for the freedom we love—for a free Canada.

It's up to us at home to give them the very best equipment possible to secure, and lots of it, for a mechanized war needs a tremendous amount of ammunition, gasoline, food, clothing, medical supplies and equipment;
and they are needed now. Are you proud to Nilo Apponen, of Calgary, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark for the past week.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reid (nee Jean Pattinson), of Wells, B.C., on Oct. 14, a son, Harold Graham.

Jack Jackson, jr., who suffered a fractured leg at his employment recently, was allowed home on Wednesday.

Due to the exceptionally fine weather which had prevailed for the past several weeks, peonies were again in bud at the town hall garden, supervised by Harold Willets.

Mrs. Henry Evans is residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolney, of Bellevue, during her husband's stay in eastern Canada, where he is based with the Canadian Navy.

CIGARETTE FUND NOTES

Dear Legion: When I arrived home from leave yesterday, the ever welcome visitor in the form of 300 cigarettes was awaiting me. Thank you most sincerely. Especially were they welcome as after leave there is not much ready cash to buy smokes. But in my case this was unnecessary, thanks to the Overseas Welfare Fund of the Canadian Legion. I hope they know how much we all appreciate their efforts.—J. T. Dunbar.

Which Shall It Be... VICTORY or DEFEAT?

The cost of victory is blood... sweat... tears... and treasure!

But the cost of defeat is EVERYTHING... from EVERYONE!

Shall it be victory or defeat?

Every Canadian must give his answer—in terms of putting every dollar he can possibly spare into the new Victory Bonds. The money you invest in Victory Bonds will come back to you with interest. But defeat would cost you everything you own... your savings, your home, perhaps your very life.

When a Man Buys a Home...

WHEN a man wants a home, he saves for it. It matters little whether it is a home or a car or what comfort or luxury you have your heart set on, you expect to deny yourself other things in order to get it. Today, all Canada is saving for a home. Unless we do save, we'll lose all right to a home, as we know it. Under Hitler, conquered people have no rights. Every dollar spent needlessly today, gives Hitler a better chance to take away your right to enjoy the luxuries that a free Canada can give you tomorrow.

Your dollars saved and invested in the New Victory Bonds work two ways for you:

Victory Bond dollars help in the fight now for your right to the things you want.

Victory Bond dollars will provide the cash for you to get what you want when the war is won.

What are a few luxuries now, compared to the years of freedom that only Victory can make possible?

Parents Asked To Decide School Hours

Department Favors Starting School at 9:30 a.m. Instead of 9; Parents Vote on Afternoon Hours.

As a direct result of Mountain War Time, school authorities find that at this time of the year and throughout the winter months, daylight comes too late in the morning, and as a result children have to study under artificial light, which is inadequate to their needs.

A suggestion has been received from Edmonton that school commence at 9:30 in the morning and continue till 12:30, instead of the customary schedule of 9 to 12. Parents are being asked this week to record their opinion as to which is the better afternoon schedule and in this case the majority vote will carry. They are being asked to decide on a 1:30 to 4 p.m. schedule, which is at present in practice, or 2 to 4:30 p.m. According to early returns the majority of parents are voting in favor of the 1:30 to 4 schedule.

The new schedule will go into effect on Nov. 2.

NEWS NOTES FROM VICTORY BOND SALESMEN

All salesmen are praising citizens for their courtesy in receiving them as they make their nightly calls from door to door.
A bombshell landed on the lap of two salesmen on Wednesday night when two foreign-born citizens came to headquarters and asked for some information on war bonds. A detailed explanation was given them and when asked "how much" they blandly replied: "Oh, we will take $500 each."

Bonds are safer than cash. This was aptly illustrated last week in East Coleman, when one salesman solicited a certain party. This gentleman, a bachelor, had his home ransacked by a thief. A watch was stolen and eleven dollars in silver. Lying beside the silver was a quantity of savings certificates and a few war bonds. They were untouched. This proves beyond the shadow of a doubt that war bonds are safer than the dollar bill.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

D. A. Muise, employee of J. A. C. D'Appolonia, had a narrow escape from serious injury on Wednesday morning, when he fell from a section of International tippie to the ground, a distance of 53 feet. He was taken to hospital, where he was found to be suffering from wrist and rib injuries. He had only been in Contractor D'Appolonia's employ for two days.

WEDDINGS

KROPINAK—SIMLA

The marriage took place in the Holy Ghost church at 11 a.m., Oct. 16, between Pte. Matt. Kropinak and Miss Alice Simla. Rev. Father Sullivan conducted the ceremony.

The bride walked into the church on the arm of her brother, Joe Simla, wearing a floor-length veil, white tulle gown and carrying a bouquet of roses. The bride's attendants were her sister Anne, who wore a gown of blue net, Miss Helen Zayka, who wore a gown of pink sheer, and Miss Emily Kupezak, who wore a gown of blue sheer.

The groom's attendants were his brother Maurice, Alex. Blazenko and William Simla.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glowacz, of East Coleman. Following the reception, the groom left for Calgary, where he is based. He will be joined later by Mrs. Kropinak.

Co-Operative Associations Increasing

The latest report issued by the co-operative activities branch lists 180 active associations of various kinds at the end of July and at the beginning of September three new co-operatives were chartered. These were at Battle River (Roseland), Holyoke and Edmonton, where a vegetable and seed growers' group has commenced operations.

Household Tips

Stiffening Curtains

There are many people who prefer to stiffen their lace curtains with gum arabic, instead of with starch. This is done by dissolving 1 ounce of gum arabic in 1/2-pint of boiling water, straining and bottling. Keep well corked. Use one teaspoon of the mixture to a pint of cold water. Dip the curtains into this and then stretch.

Water proof Fabric

To make ordinary fabric water-proof, dissolve equal parts of isinglass, alum and soap separately in water. Then mix the three, and brush the mixture on the wrong side of the cloth.

Easier Ironing

A thick rug under the feet while ironing goes a long way towards easing the feet, and will lessen fatigue.

The Paint Brush

The bristles of a new paint brush can be prevented from shedding during the painting process if the brush is held, bristles up, and a spoonful of varnish is poured into the base of the bristles. Keep the brush in an up-right position until the varnish has dried.

Scented Hair

If one likes her hair to have a delicate perfume, spray it with perfume while it is still wet from the next shampoo. A delicate aroma will remain in the hair until its next washing.

Rubber Plant

A teaspoonful of sweet oil dropped about the roots of a rubber plant once a month will greatly increase the gloss of the plant.

Stained Leather

Old stains may be removed from leather furniture by coating with a mixture of powdered pipe clay and water mixed to a paste. Allow this to remain for several hours, and then brush off and repeat the process if necessary.

Cod Liver Oil
Rinse the spoon in cold water before giving the child a dose of emulsion or cod liver oil, and this will prevent any of the medicine from sticking to the spoon and being wasted.

Today's best should be tomorrow's starting point.

Wartime Loves Turning
Girls to Linguists

With Boy Friends from Among Many Allied Fighting Forces,
British Lassies Become Linguists

By ALAN RANDAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 7 (CP)—True love is turning British girls into expert linguists. The reason is that their boy friends are in one or another of the foreign forces training in Britain for the day when a land attack on Europe is opened.

Cockney waitresses from London's West End, office girls from the city and factory girls from the Midlands are learning foreign languages with a speed which is astonishing their teachers.

"We have been struck by the increase in the number of young women who come to us to learn foreign languages," a representative of one of London's schools of languages, said. "The reason, they tell us, is because they have become engaged or are 'walking out' with one of the thousands of foreign soldiers now over here.

"Many of these girls have not had an expensive education and they probably never would have found the courage, or desire, to come to us for tuition were it not for love. We find that the girls who are in love make much more rapid progress than the pupils because they are so eager to be able to talk to their young men in their own language."

Motorists Contribute To Accidents

In the course of his evidence at Monday's inquest on the regrettable fatality on Monday, October 5, at the level crossing on Highway No. 3 east of Macleod, Engineer Brooks stated it was not the first time he had to apply his brakes at this crossing. Though there is a wig-wag signal with its warning bell to make known the approach of trains, frequently motorists would come along the highway at a high rate of speed, and his heart would be in his mouth, not knowing if they would cross the track or come to a stop. Sometimes they just pulled up at the train road over the crossing, and sit and laugh at the engineer.

It is impossible for a locomotive to be brought to a stop quickly enough to avoid hitting a car, and the uncertainty created in the locomotive engineer's mind as he sees automobiles approaching level crossings is a severe tax on his nerves. The loss of a life by accident is felt very keenly by an engineer and train crew, though they are powerless to prevent it if precautions for safety are not observed by the drivers of cars—Macleod Gazette.

A Poor Investment

(Red Deer Advocate)
The visit of an Alberta member of the Canadian Senate to Edmonton last week brings into sharp focus some factors in his relationship to the people of this province which he is supposed to represent, and to the people of Canada as a whole. Prior to his appointment, this Senator was a member of the provincial civil service, and as far as the Advocate is aware, did his job well and he was then, and is now a good citizen. He was appointed in 1918, and is now the senior member of his party in the Senate. During the twenty-four years since his appointment, he has drawn $36,000 in seasonal indemnity, together with his annual railway fare and other perquisites of office. This payment was made from the public funds of Canada to him because of his service to the party in power at his appointment. Both Liberal and Conservative parties follow the practice of rewarding the faithful, and this large sum has been paid from the public funds simply as a reward for party loyalty.

The Advocate would be the first to admit that there are able men in the Canadian Senate, but they are not in the majority. The large majority of members are in the Senate as a reward for services rendered to the Liberal or Conservative parties, not to Canada. They have no duties to perform other than to attend the Senate a sufficient number of days to draw their indemnity. The country pays them $4,000 a year, and it is submitted here that this amount might be invested to much better advantage in some other direction.

Spitfires Form a Lorraine Cross

Free French Fly Formation
to Show British their Good Faith

LONDON (CP)—Spitfires squadrons, heading out across the channel towards France, are flying in a new formation, six in line astern, two forming on either side of the second aircraft and four more on the fourth in line. It looks like this:

00000

These Spitfires make up the Cross of Lorraine, symbol of the Fighting French. A French Squadron Leader explained the formation this way.

"The flying arrangement was chosen as our sign to the British people, that we, the Fighting French, are taking our daily part in the liberation attack, even on targets in our own country. Our people welcome us because they know it is the only way to rid them of the Boche."

But once over enemy territory the formation changes. It is designed solely for British view because once across the channel the R.A.F. has its special attacking formations.

Question of Manpower

The manpower shortage continues to be one of the toughest problems facing the government. Action to curtail non-essential industries is expected any day now. Just how this will be done remains to be seen but it is considered likely whatever program is undertaken will be put in operation through existing powers, and not by means of a new order-in-council.

Some steps in this direction already have been taken. Workers in gold mines are being sought to fill the manpower needs of base metal mines in the Sudbury, Ont., district, where the shortage is acute. The United States has decided to halt operations of several hundred of the biggest gold mines in that country but it is not believed that such drastic action will be necessary.

Another move came in the form of tightened building restrictions, announced by the Munitions and Supply Department, under which a license is required for construction of any house costing more than $500.

St. John — Red Cross

LONDON, Oct. 1 (CP) With the birthrate rising—the 158,200 babies born in England and Wales in the first quarter of this year the highest total for 10 years—the Health Ministry faces a dearth of midwives. Low salaries are said to be the crux of the difficulty. Many of these qualified women who won the George Cross and other decorations for their fearless attendance at childbirths during air raids get only the equivalent of $13.50 a week.

HERE ARE WOMEN WHO KEPT SECRETS

LONDON (CP) — Britain's young women know how to keep a secret, too.

For weeks before the story of the new mass-produced $8 Sten submachine gun was made public Auxiliary Territorial Service Privates Margaret Richings and Violet Clark, both 19, were engaged in packing the guns at an ordnance depot.

They handled thousands of them. They were told they were engaged in secret work. They never blabbed.

Why, Grandma

The click of knitting needles, the creak of the rocker and the ticking of grandfather's clock were all that disturbed the silence of the room. With childish curiosity little Ellen sat watching the purrs and stitches.

"Why do you knit," Grandma?" she asked.

"Oh, just for the hell of it," the old lady replied.

Pleasant Dreams

A colored preacher at the close of his sermon, discovered one of his deacons asleep. He said: "We will now have a few minutes of prayer. Deacon Brown will lead." "Lead!" said Deacon Brown, suddenly awakening. "I just doat."

WE'RE GOING TO NEED SO MANY THINGS WHEN THE WAR ENDS ...things that are hard to get now

Every day, almost, we find that something else is getting scarce. So often, we are told "they're not making it any more". Factories are making guns instead of ploughs, tanks instead of tractors, planes and shells instead of stoves and beds. We'll have to replace so many things when the war ends... things we can't buy now.

MONEY INVESTED IN VICTORY BONDS

TWO WAYS TO BUY VICTORY BONDS NOW

—with Cash

... in one lump sum, with money we have saved. There is no safer investment... no better way to protect our savings.

Or—we can buy bonds and pay for them through our banks in monthly instalments. As the instalments come due the bank will charge them to our accounts.

—with Produce

Farm folk can pay for Victory Bonds in another, convenient way—by using the "PRODUCE FOR VICTORY" TICKET. By simply signing a "Victory Ticket" you can authorize those who buy produce from you to send all or part of the proceeds to the War Finance Committee to buy Victory Bonds for you. (Ask your local War Finance worker for details.)

WHAT A VICTORY BOND IS

Look at a dollar bill. A dollar bill is like a bond. It's a promise to pay to the man who has it. You get bills when you sell things and pay them out when you buy things. A Victory Bond is "a bill" intended to be saved. When you keep a $100.00 Victory Bond for a year you receive an additional $3.00. (3% interest). Buy all the Victory Bonds you can—lend money to Canada to help to win the war. Save your bonds to have money for things you'll need when the war ends.

IF FOLKS IS SO KEEN 'BOUT THESE HERE 'ADVERTISING' SHEETS, WHY DON'T PROMOTERS HAVE TO GIVE THEM AWAY?

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
OCTOBER 25STEPS TOWARD SOLUTION OF THE ALCOHOL PROBLEM

Golden text: Let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream. Amos 5:24.
Lesson: Ecclesiastes 10: 17; Amos 5:23-24; Romans 14: 9-11; 11 Corinthians 6:17; 1 Peter 4:1-5.
Devotional reading: Isaiah 1:16-20.

Explanations and Comments
"Eat for Strength, not for Drunkenness." Ecclesiastes 10:17. "Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning; is the verse preceding our printed text. The One Volume Commentary thinks the case can hardly be an imaginary one, and adds: "Ptolemy Epiphanes succeeded his father Philopater as king of Egypt at the age of six years (205 B.C.), and during his minority there was much strife between the Syrian and Jewish factions in Egypt, and, on the part of some in high places, licentious indulgence every day and all day, ('eat in the morning')." In contradistinction to such a king and princes, the writer of Ecclesiastes cries, "Happy art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!"

Let Righteousness Roll Down as a Mighty Stream. Amos 5:24. The prophet Amos represents God as saying, "I hate, I despise your feasts (given over to debauchery), and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies."

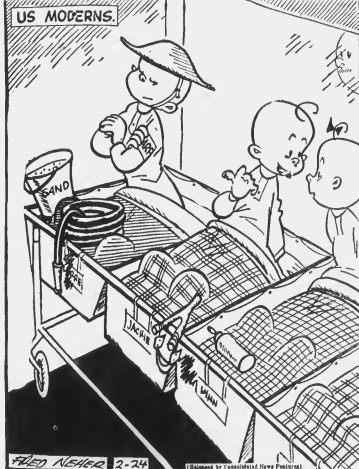

"Our solemn assemblies may still be despised by God," W. J. Farley comments. "Wherever mere ritual and form are allowed to take the place of filial communion with God and moral obedience, our worship will be as lightly esteemed by him as was the worship of Israel long ago."

Absolution for the Sake of Others. Romans 14:19-21. So then let us pursue things that make for peace, and things whereby we may edify, improve one another. Not only must we do nothing to overthrow another, but we must certainly do all we can to build another up. Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God. Overthrow, pull down, is the opposite of edifying, build up. Possibly some of the "strong" Christians were on the point of disrupting the church of Rome over the unimportant question of "meat," and Paul counsels them not to overthrow for meat's sake the work of God, "the Christian brother, whose Christian personality is God's work." All things are clean; howbeit it is evil for that man who eateth with offense to his own conscience. In the church at Rome there were those who had formerly worshipped idols, the old association of ideas still clung to them, and if they partook of meat that had been offered to idols before being sold, their conscience troubled them, fearing that in so doing they were resuming their old practice of idol worship. They were narrow, unenlightened, but their conscience must be respected. If they saw the Jewish Christians partaking of such food they would be led to do the same, and thus disobey their conscience. Therefore Paul declares that it is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth.

He's been appointed Air Raid Warden."

Did you ever check up on just how you spend the money your budget allows for food? If you do you'd probably be surprised at the number of people who don't. And perhaps you're not even doing it yourself, now that shortages of one sort or another are making buying so difficult. For that very reason, however, it is more than ever important for the homemaker to budget for victory.

There are a number of different ways of keeping your food budget balanced, but right now a good rule of thumb way of getting the right foods in the right proportion is this—

Divide foods into four classes:

1. Dairy Products—milk, cheese, and butter
2. Fruit and vegetables—including potatoes, vegetables (fresh and dried), tomatoes, fruits (fresh and dried).
3. Meat, fish and eggs.
4. Cereals and other foods. This class includes bread, oatmeal, flour and the incidentals, sugar, coffee, tea, etc.

Then spend one quarter or 25% of the money you have decided to spend on food on the articles in each class. If you are going to spend $12.00 a week on food, see that three of those dollars go for milk, cheese and butter and another three for fruit and vegetables. The minute you spend too much for one class and too little for another you are feeding your family an unbalanced diet.

And remember that in class 4—Cereals and other foods—most of the money (unless you have lots to spend) should buy wholewheat, hard and whole grain cereals. Rationing will help you out there. Tea, coffee and even sugar, to some extent, are not nutritional assets.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

On Caledon Mountain in Ontario stands a Scottish castle? It was built to remind its owner of the "bonny banks and braes" of home. Stone for the walls came from the surrounding fields. Windows and doors were made by hand. This lonely Highland stronghold is shown in an Associated Screen "Did You Know That?" movie short.

FOR THE CELEBRATION

Belgians are saving their last provisions of tea for British soldiers when they invade the continent, says the Flemish Nazi newspaper Volk en Staat. "Others have kept a few bottles of ale," it added.

"Nazi Eyes On Canada"

Orson Welles, The Man From Mars, As Sam Dornan, Newspaperman

Orson Welles, actor, radio and theatrical producer is flying to Toronto, Sunday, October 25th, to contribute his services on behalf of the Canadian Victory Loan. He stars as a Weekly Newspaper Editor in the last of the dramatic radio series "Nazi Eyes On Canada," to be broadcast over a coast-to-coast network, Sunday, October 25th at 7:30 p.m. E.D.T.

Orson Welles, he of the many talents and activities, has debauched in fields you'd never suspect. One little known episode in the varied Welles career took place when he was a 14-year-old veteran of scholastic theatricals. He was a columnist.

There was a Chicago neighborhood daily called the "Highland Park News" which had a meager circulation. He had a byline over a column of theatre news and critiques. His journalistic career was short-lived, however, as he was fired for his caustic comment on the shows.

Next Sunday, for "Nazi Eyes On Canada," he becomes a newspaperman again. He will assume the part of Sam J. Dornan, Editor of the Alameda "Dispatch," Alameda, Saskatchewan. The broadcast will show by the description of everyday Alameda community folk, how their lives would change under the tyrannical heel of Nazi conquerors.

Sam J. Dornan has served 22 years as a director of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association. He is known by every weekly editor in Canada. Today, his five sons are in uniform—his eldest, a captain in Ordnance, was wounded in the Dieppe raid.

Listen to Orson Welles as the Saskatchewan weekly newspaper editor in the final broadcast of the "Nazi Eyes On Canada" series—Sunday, October 25th at 7:30 p.m. E.D.T., over a coast-to-coast network.

Service Counted Up

Made Quart Of Milk Costly For Guest In Hotel

Senator Gerald Nye, North Dakota Republican, told the Senate that a friend, stopping at a hotel in Washington, had paid $1.06 for a quart of milk he drinks nightly before retiring.

The hotel guest was informed, Nye said, that the quart of milk would have to be delivered to his room in four glasses. The charge was 20 cents for each glass, plus 25 cents for service to the room.

"I understand," Nye told his colleagues, "that the farmer whose dairy cattle produced that quart of milk may have received five cents for it."

ENJOYED THEMSELVES

An audience in occupied Denmark was viewing a Nazi newsreel. Upon the appearance of Hitler getting into a plane, a voice rang out from the darkened house, "Remember me to Hess!"

Instantly the lights went out, and the Gestapo searched for the guilty one. Failing, they ordered the show closed, told the people to get their money back at the door. Silently the audience filed out, not one stopping at the box-office for his refund.

"Why our money back?" they told the gasping Gestapos. "We enjoyed the show!"

Elocution is a good thing. But it doesn't go far enough. It merely teaches a man how to speak—not when or how long.

SMILE AWHILE

"I took the recipe for this cake out of the cookbook."

"You did perfectly right, dear. It never should have been put in."

"John, do you remember—it was in a storm like this that you declared your love for me?"

"Yes, it was a terrible night."

"Does it make any difference on which side of you I sit?" asked the sweet young thing.

"Not a bit, replied the bold young man. 'I'm ambidextrous.'"

"Say, Bill, you didn't marry that girl back home while you were on vacation, did you?"

"Almost, Joe. Two of us were willing—me and the minister."

Jack: My doctor advised me to go on a diet.

Fred: Did you do it?

Jack: After I paid his bill I had to.

Wife: Botham — Young man, have you the firmness of character that enables a person to go on and do his duty in the face of ingratitude, criticism and heartless ridicule?

Jones — I ought to have, sir. I cook for a fishing party two full weeks.

She: Here's a story of a man out West who bartered his wife for a horse. You wouldn't swap me for a horse, would you, darling?

He: Of course not (pause), but I'd hate to have any one tempt me with a good motor car.

Baptisms

On Sunday, October 18, there were two baptisms of much local interest at St. Paul's United church.

At the eleven o'clock service in the morning, David Hugh Rusk, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Graeme Rusk Howarth, (nee Audrey Grace Dunlop), received the Sacrament of Baptism.

At five o'clock in the afternoon Leigh Halliwell, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn Griffiths Hayson, (nee Wilma Dorothy Halliwell), received the Sacrament of Baptism. Members of the family from Bellevue, Blaimore and Coleman were present. The baby's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan, of Pincher Creek, were the sponsors.

At St. Alban's Anglican church at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, Oct. 18th, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duxton was baptized Eleanor, with Rev. J. R. Hage officiating. Sponsors were Mrs. Albert Fauville and Miss Jean Rose.
